

God gives us His only begotten Son so that whoever believes in Him might have eternal life. This thought expressed in the Gospel of John reminds us of how God is committed to us. Can we say the same in terms of our response to God?

Have a good week!

The program kicks off on November 18th and runs through December 29th. We only have one "double match" day this year, which will be Friday, December 7th. This program is very important to our food pantry - we received over $27,000 last year. Thank you for your participation!

Thank you to members of the Community Life Committee for their help with last Saturday's special Memorial Service. Please continue to add any additional names to be remembered in prayer during November to the Book of the Dead located near the Confessional.

Please remember to support our annual Christmas Bazaar this weekend.

"This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty."

Mark 12:38-44

Throughout scripture, widows were portrayed as the supreme examples of the destitute and powerless. Jesus again makes a considerable impact upon his hearers, then, by lifting up a widow who has nothing as an example of faithful generosity. Only that which is given, not from our abundance, but from our own need and poverty --- and given totally, completely, humbly, and joyfully --- is a gift fitting for God. The widow's "reckless" giving from her poverty, rather than from her abundance, challenges our concept of carefully planned, tax-deductible, convenient, and painless giving. Jesus' concept of charity is centered in the kind of total and unconditional love that makes such sacrificial giving a joy. In the economy of God, numbers are not the true value of giving: it is what we give from our want, not from our extra, that reflects what we truly value, what good we actually want to accomplish, what we really want our lives and world to be. (Connections 2018, 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time).
