30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR LADY OF FATIMA FAMILY OF PARISHES ACCOMPANIES PEOPLE IN BECOMING DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

PASTOR: Fr. Eric Bowman | VICAR: Fr. Jacob Schmiesing
SUNDAY ASSOCIATE: Fr. Joseph Kozar | DEACONS: John Carlin, Jim Niswonger

Spend Time with Our Lord in Adoration

"Each one of us is a coworker of Christ - we must labor hard to carry Him to the hearts where He has not yet been known and loved - but, unless we have Jesus, we cannot give Him; that is why we need the Eucharist. Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament, and He will fill you with His strength and His power."

FR. ERIC BOWMAN'S RAMBLINGS

The Two Great Commandments

On September 24, 2026 the wonderful former Archbishop of New York, Archbishop Fulton Sheen was beatified, which means that he is one step closer to being recognized as a saint. In memory of Blessed Sheen I would like to draw upon some of his thoughts on the great commandment, "you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind (Matt 22)."

During his presentations, Archbishop Sheen would offer his trademark words of benediction, "God love you." Sheen explained that his phrase, "God love you," means God is love, God loves you, and you ought to love God in return. Along with his familiar parting phrase of "God love you," Archbishop Sheen was known for beginning his lectures with the greeting "Friends." This salutation had a twofold meaning: he was referring to the scripture passage, "I no longer call you servants... instead, I have called you friends." (John 15:15) And, he wanted to make friends with men and women of all faiths, in the hope of gradually helping them to come to know the Lord Jesus Christ.

For Blessed Sheen, these two commandments summarize the entire Gospel. Every Christian duty, every moral teaching, and every spiritual practice ultimately flows from love. God does not desire mere external obedience. He seeks the human heart. Love transforms obedience from a burden into a joy. What duty commands, love freely embraces. One of Archbishop Sheen's most memorable insights was that authentic love always involves self-giving. The world often defines love as receiving affection, pleasure, security or fulfillment. Sheen challenged this understanding by insisting that true love is measured not by what it receives but by what it gives. He frequently pointed to Christ on the Cross as the perfect example of love. Jesus held nothing back. He gave His time, His energy, His compassion, His suffering and ultimately His life. According to Sheen, every authentic relationship reflects this truth. Parents sacrifice for their children. Husbands and wives sacrifice for one another. Priests sacrifice for their people. Friends sacrifice for friends. The greater the love, the greater the willingness to give. No symbol was more central to Archbishop Sheen's spirituality than the Cross. He often stated that the Cross reveals the true meaning of love better than any book, sermon or philosophy ever could. On Calvary, Christ demonstrated that love is not merely an emotion. Love is a gift of self. The world often associates love with feelings, attraction or emotional satisfaction. While these have their place, Sheen taught that genuine love endures even when emotions fade.

Christ did not love humanity because it was lovable. He loved humanity because love is His very nature. The Cross therefore becomes the ultimate school of love. It teaches believers that authentic love is willing to suffer, forgive and persevere.

COMMUNICATION

Use the BULLETIN SUBMISSION link on any of our church websites, 10 days prior, to ensure proper preparation prior to the printing process. It's helpful if graphics/logos/QRs are separate and not combined with the wording to allow for spacing and flexibility. Submissions and inclusion or timing are subject to editorial review. Text, images, layouts, spacing for clarity, style and consistency with our publication may be edited. Please do not submit predesigned or finalized materials to allow flexibility for content to fit the printer's format needs. For questions, special project/ministry/event planning or requests or additional communication, call 937-698-4520.

Thank you to our community advertisers! OLF bulletin is the same at each of our five churches. It's advertisers' choice to purchase advertising space from multiple cities. Find an "EXTRA PAGE" of external groups' content in the Transfiguration/St. Teresa edition, since there are fewer advertisers in those smaller cities. See: www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/sunday-bulletins.

Jesus said the greatest commandment is to love God with all your heart, soul, and mind. The next most important thing is to love other people like you love yourself.
